Learning and Teaching English through CLIL

These theme-based Language and Methodology courses are specifically designed for primary and secondary teachers. Participants are introduced to the principles of CLIL and explore how target languages and subjects can be taught together using creative approaches and drama processes. The courses are practical and include Discovery events, engaging with the environment and building learning communities.

Aims of our “Learning and Teaching English through CLIL” training course:

- To explore CLIL approaches
- To discover resources suitable for the cross-curricular teaching of English in schools
- To refresh and enhance participant’s linguistic skills
- To discover a different Education System and the roles and responsibilities within it, from Government to educational establishments
- To enhance the professional and cultural awareness of participants
- To explore efficient and innovative use of ICT tools

Spanish Language and Culture Development

Enjoy a fun and immersive language-learning experience in Spain! These courses offer just the right balance of language skills development and improving participants’ expertise in the pedagogy of language teaching. You will be fully immersed in the Spanish language and culture, gaining enthusiasm and invaluable knowledge to take back to your target audience. Our methodology is practical and dynamic: teachers learn by doing!

Aims of our “Spanish Language and Culture Development” training courses:

- To update participants’ Spanish language skills through formal and informal conversation, grammar, speaking, listening, reading and writing activities
- To enhance participants’ language learning and teaching methodology
- To develop cultural awareness and understanding of contemporary Spain
- To promote the exchange of teaching practices and develop ideas for use in the Classroom
- To enhance participants’ professional development and encourage them to reflect on personal practice

Learning for Sustainability

This training course offers a chance to explore principles of Learning for Sustainability within the host country's Education System. It includes a balance of formal presentations by education experts, meetings with management teams to exchange good practice, actions and plans developed by schools and participative workshops, as well as a chance for participants to share good practice with colleagues and reflect on their own professional practices.

Aims of our “Learning for Sustainability” training course:

- To discover the roles and responsibilities within the host country's Education System, from government to educational establishments
- To explore principles of Learning for Sustainability within the host country's Education System
- To attend workshops in schools to discuss with school leaders, teachers and pupils how they put in place Learning for Sustainability.
- To meet with management teams to exchange good practice, actions and plans developed by schools
- To reflect on how the training can inform Learning for Sustainability programmes and policies in each participant's region/country of origin, as well as their own individual work practices

Inclusion, Health and Wellbeing in Education

This training course connects with the research and outputs of the Inscool2 Key Action 3 project. It includes a balance of formal presentations by education experts and participative workshops, as well as a chance for participants to share good practice with colleagues and reflect on their own professional practices.

Objectives of our “Inclusion, Health and Wellbeing in Education” training activity:

- To deepen knowledge and understanding of inclusive education policy, practice & culture
- To suggest ways to promote inclusive culture in the classroom
- To enhance the skills of teachers working inclusively in schools

- To understand and to address the diversity of learning needs in a classroom
- To give participants tools to work on collective problem sharing and solving
- To enhance cooperation within the school community (parents, students, school staff) and with a wider spectrum of education stakeholders
- To increase the confidence and motivation of teachers to implement inclusive pedagogies
- To explore principles of Inclusion, Health and Wellbeing within the host country's Education System

About us

Interacting+ Ireland and LFEE Europe have been designing tailor-made teacher training courses in the UK, Ireland, Spain and around the world for more than 20 years. Since then, a growing community of teachers have brought activities and processes from their training to classroom practice. We are internationally recognised leaders in the field of Education and Language Teaching and Learning and in the ways that process drama can enhance learning. We have led on numerous projects of cooperation and innovation under the Erasmus+ KA2 and KA3 programmes.
